

With a humanistic background in literature, linguistics and philosophy (Mexico, UNAM), Juan Carlos Estrada has more than 10 year's experience in project development within the bio-economy sector, mostly regarding innovative technologies and upcycling value chains. He is based in the Netherlands since 2012.

